Young Expectant Mother, Mrs. Earl Collingsworth, Feted at Sunday Shower

"Welcome Little Angel," inscribed in pink on a large white cake, told the theme last Sunday evening when Mrs. William Campbell opened her home, 1434 El Prado, for a stork shower honoring Mrs. Don Collingsworth, the former Miss Ann-Marie Bishop.

Sharing hostess honors at the "infanticipating" affair was Mrs. Robert Bowers.

Play storks adorned nutcrackers at the refreshment table, and more of the long-legged birds, fashioned of safety pins, were at each place setting. Floral decor was carried out with pink and white roses and blue delphiniums.

Gifts for the anticipated infant, the first for the Collingsworths, were banked around the fireplace.

Prizes for high scores in traditional shower games which highlighted evening entertainment went to Misses Erna Carstens, Jane Fisher, Alicia Loraner, and Marian McDonald.

Others attending were Mmes. R. F. Bishop and Earl Collingsworth, grandmothers-to-be; Lawrence Gezellus; Frank Sclarrotta, Ross Sclarrotta, Robert Volen, Jack Hood, the hostesses, the honoree, and Miss Ann Stephens.
